Before the court is Plaintiff's Notice of Motion and Motion to Revoke Magistrate Court's Order to Release Defendant Maria Sanchez Pending Trial (#45). The Magistrate Judge's order regarding release was stayed (#46) pending consideration of the Government's motion by this court. On June 16, 2008, the court held a hearing on the Government's motion to revoke. The Defendant opposed the Government's motion and the Government's position is that it stood by its motion and opposes the Magistrate's order regarding release.

The court has considered all of the factors required under 18 U.S.C. § 3142. Notwithstanding the strong arguments presented by the defense, the court finds that the Government's evidence of the Defendant's guilt is strong, that there is probable cause to believe that the Defendant committed the offenses charged and that there is a serious risk that the Defendant will flee if granted pretrial release. The court further finds that there are no conditions

1 or combination of conditions of release that would reasonably assure the appearance of the 2 Defendant at trial.

3 Good cause appearing, the Government's motion (#45) is GRANTED, and

4 IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant shall be detained pending trial.

5 DATED this 17th day of June, 2008.
